To our twenty-seven different teachers we give our thanks for their patience in guiding us through these twelve years. To our classmates and friends we extend our best wishes for the future.

CLASS SONG

(Lyrics by Darlene P. and Prudence N. To be sung to the tune of "Red River Valley".

Tw'as in the fall of '40
We children walked the road
That led to the door of knowledge;
And meekly in we strode.

The merry-go-round soon came in sight
And the rods on which to play;
We all found new and exciting friends
And we loved them in every way.

Everything seemed new and strange
To six-year olds like us--
Each morning when our mothers called,
We made no point to fuss.

Then came another year in sight
Yes, the newness faded away.
We learned that school was built right here
For study-not for play.

Yet as the years rolled swiftly by
We lost not all our fun;
We only learned that we could play
When all the work was done.

We left our beloved eighth grade class
With light heart and with hope;
When we became the freshmen brave
The "world was in our scope."

But little did we know, my friends,
What our strange thoughts would mean;
For we knew not what would lie ahead
As we each became a "teen."

They tried to teach us what is wrong
And we learned what things are right;
As we pressed onward to the goal
Of Seniors--Which was in sight!

One year came and swiftly passed
As we slaved for our "seniors dear."
Through the banquet which we worked to prepare,
We found joy in our Junior year.

Then entered we our Senior year,
Thus reaching the goal we'd set,
Of being together all this time
From the first day we had met.

We're leaving St. Ansgar School behind
We'll find happiness, joy, and strife--
But in each our careers we'll try to make
NOT ONLY A LIVING, BUT A LIFE!.

I, Stanton Kittleson, will Audrey Langrock to Billy Schulz. (One less to worry about, Billie.)

I, Carl Wolters, will my "angel personality" to Marlene Steward.

We entered school in the fall of '51 with an enrollment of 22.

On the second day of school we had a class meeting and election of officers. They were as follows: President, Elizabeth Houg; Vice-President, Norma Loeschen; Secretary, Betty Bork; Treasurer, Sherlyn Feldt; and Reporter, Audrey Langrock. Our class sponsors are Mr. Tague and Miss Stebbens.

Out for sports we had these boys in football: Harold Buringrud, Gary Sayles, Billy Schulz, and Gene Mouw, three of whom saw service on the first team. Our Homecoming king and queen candidates were Dick Jacobson and Betty Bork. After an exciting football season we started out in basketball. Juniors who went out were: Harold Buringrud, Gary Sayles, Richard Rosel, and Gene Mouw.

Elizabeth Houg, Norma Loeschen, and Audrey Langrock were members of the first string cheerleaders while Sylvia Priem was a second team cheerleader.

In the music department we have Elizabeth Houg, Norma Loeschen, Audrey Langrock, Janice Falk, Bonnie Leraaen, Sherlyn Feldt, Sylvia Priem, K. B. Askland, Richard Rosel, and Gene Mouw.

Our Junior class play "No Moon Tonight", met with great success this year under the leadership of Miss Burge.

We are all looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet this spring.

Saints 7--Northwood 0

Lynn Jenkins scored the only touchdown of the game on a 3 yard plunge. Stan Kittleson added the extra point on an end run. The line play of both teams was outstanding. There wasn't any one person on the Saint team to single out for praise. They all played as a team should.

Saints 0--Nora Springs 20

In the first conference game of the season, the Saints were decisively defeated. Jefferies of Nora Springs scored two of their touchdowns. At times the Saints looked unbeatable, but they lacked good blocking and accurate passing. They couldn't quite get going.

Saints 30--Lime Springs 6

This game was a showing of everybody being awake at all times and playing together as they should. Stan Kittleson scored 3 of the team's touchdowns on right end runs without a hand being laid on him which shows the accuracy of the team's blocking. The Saints two small and speedy half-backs, Bill and Galen Schultz, supplied the other two T.D.'s. The whole team looked improved over last weeks game and if they continue to improve, they'll be right up at the top in the CB conference.

Saints 0--Rockford 14

The Saints played heads up and inspired ball, but they couldn't quite cope with the weight advantage that was against them. The Saints were outweighed 35# to the man. Krukow, the Rohawk 230# full-back, scored one touchdown and set up the others. Rockford really had to work for their "TD's", and at no time made over 6 or 7 yard gains through the Saints line

Saints 7--Nashua 7

Nashua scored first on the last play of the first quarter on a 20 yard run by Zuck. The Saints T.D. came on a pass from Stan Kittleson to Jim Larson. Both teams were up for this one, and neither team gave up any more yardage than they had to.

Saints 6--Greene 0

The only Saint touchdown came as a result of the same pass play that was used against Nashua so successfully last week. Kittleson to Larson. This time it was for 15 yards. The Greene team came up with a passing attack that almost spelled defeat for the Saints in the last quarter. Gene Nickerson knocked a pass out of a Greene end's fingers just as he was stepping across the goal line. Dick Williams and Vic Klindt were outstanding on defense.

Saints 0--Manly 20

Whew! This game was a matter of Manly power and weight against St. A. spirit and fight. In this homecoming game, the Saints held in all but a few plays, but these few plays were what hurt them. All of Manly's T.D.'s were made from 7 to 36 yards out. Norman Kittleson was outstanding in this game on defense and the whole team was in there playing their hearts out all the time.

Saints 12--Riceville 6

The Saints downed a good Riceville team on the basis of taking advantage of two good breaks. The first was a recovered fumble on the Riceville 17 yard line by Larson. From there the Saints swept to the 1 and Stan Kittleson carried it across. The other break came after Riceville scored their only T.D. The Saints used the old sleeper play to good advantage and Larson took Kittleson's perfect pass and ran 53 yards for the touchdown.

Homecoming

Jerry Albright and Galen Schultz reigned over this years homecoming festivities. The Saints were defeated in the ball game 20 to 0 by Manly. The weather was dreary, but never-the-less, there was a colorful parade with the F.H. A. float taking first place in the awards for the best floats. The homecoming parade was led by the band, and each class float was preceded by a convertible bearing the class candidates for homecoming king and queen.

Cornbowl Conference Banquet

The banquet was held at Nashua this year. The Saints had two players honored on the all-conference team. They were Richard Williams, Center; and Jim Larson, End. The principal speaker at the banquet was Warren Gaer, coach of the Drake Bulldogs. He spoke on the merits of athletics and also on the Johnny Bright incident.

The second team ended the season with a 14 win and 4 loss record. This is not the best record in recent years, but it is nevertheless a good showing. This years second team employed a fast break, whenever possible, to great advantage. Many of these boys will be welcome additions to next years first team.

Fourth: Winifred Finley, Doreen Bless, Virgene Kittleson, Delores Schofield, Barbara Nitardy, Prudence Naber, Bonnie Leraesen, Sherlyn Feldt, and Sylvia Priem. Advisor: Miss Stebbens.

The club's colors are red and white: the flower is the red rose and the motto is "Toward New Horizons."

The Club's creed is as follows:

We are the Future Homemakers of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope. For we have the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes, homes for America's future. Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good fair. Homes where truth and love and security and faith will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America. We face the future with warm courage and high hope.

There are eight purposes of the club which are discussed at each meeting. The purposes are:

To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.

To encourage democracy in home community life.

To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.

To work for good home and family life for all.

To promote international good will.

To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.

To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.

To further interest in home economics.

Vice-President----Elizabeth Houg

First: Norman Kittleson, Eugene Steward, Richard Sheumaker, Frederick Krahn, Galen Schulz, David Hendrickson, K. B. Askland, Karl Martin.
 Second: Garth Jordan, Billy Schulz, Gene Nickerson, Harold Buringrud, Alan Hofland, Charles Low, Frederick Langrock, Freddie Beyer.
 Advisor: Mr. Gerald Halvorson.

The F. F. A. planned a trip to Chicago last fall and it was taken by the following members: Verle Nickerson, Ralph Kofoot, George Olson, Richard Sheumaker, K. B. Askland, Donald Miller, Eugene Steward, and Gerald Halvorson, Agriculture instructor. They enjoyed a very interesting trip stopping at many interesting places. All of the boys who went will agree that it was a very educational trip.

The F. F. A. sold refreshments at the football games last fall. This helped to finance the trip to Chicago.

All of the Agricultural members who wanted to go to the Swine Institute at Austin in February were excused from school. This was an all day program of speakers who talked on the raising of pigs, the future of pigs and two farmers who gave the account of their actual experience of raising pigs. There were about forty persons who attended including the drivers.

The F. F. A. has a gilt project this year. A gilt was purchased by the F. F. A. and was leased out to a member. The boy is to keep the gilt to raise pigs, then gets a certain number of pigs. This is determined by how many pigs the gilt has. The gilt this year was leased out to Freddie Beyer. This proved to be very profitable both to the chapter and to Freddie because the gilt had 10 good pigs on the First of March, 1952.

The F. F. A. is going to put on a pest control program in which the F. F. A. members are going to declare war on the pests of the farm such as rats, fox, and other pests of the farmers.

We plan to have an oats test plot this spring. We will have oats, soybeans, and probably different kinds of fertilizers in the plot. This plot is to be on the E. M. Torblaa farm north of St. Ansgar.

Next year we hope to have more cement hog troughs to sell to the farmers. We would also like to have another trip so the ones that are graduating from high school will be able to take a trip with some of the F. F. A. members before they leave school.

Officers this year are:

President-----	Richard Sheumaker
Vice-President-----	Verle Nickerson
Secretary-----	Gene Nickerson
Treasurer-----	Billy Schulz
Reporter-----	Ralph Kofoot

"HERE COMES HATTIE"

Senior Class Play

For the first time in seventeen years, Aunt Hattie, accompanied by her secretary, is to pay a visit to the Greene's. Mrs. Greene, having cherished the hope that her son and daughter would inherit Aunt Hattie's money, decides that Hattie must never know that their son Tom sings at The White Owl, a night club. Since Tom cannot break his contract even for one night, Mrs. Greene and her daughter Ann persuade Bill Billings, much against his better judgement, to impersonate Tom for a day and night, Bashful Bill's impersonation of the dashing night club singer is screamingly funny. When Aunt Hattie announces her intention of prolonging her visit, the family is thrown into a panic. From then on the comedy runs rampant.

Characters

Mrs. Greene, the family manager; Mr. Greene, her "yes man" with a submerged sense of humor; Ann, their daughter, who just can't make Bill propose; Tom, a dashing night club singer; Florence, in love with Tom; Bill, always on the verge of proposing to Ann; Aunt Hattie, Mr. Green's wealthy and eccentric sister; Velda Wayne, her trusted secretary, who turns out to be a crook with a police record; Etta, the maid whose lack of intelligence is compensated for by her devotion to the Greenes.

William Billings---David Zea
Hattie King---Prudence Naber

"NO MOON TONIGHT"

Junior Class Play

When Ellen, in a burst of wishful thinking, fills out an application falsifying her father's qualifications for director of a Chicago planetarium, little does she realize that a fire-cracker will explode in her face. For booby-soxer Susan mails the application, unknown to her sister, and the fireworks begin. Result No. 1: Mr. Terry, amateur astronomer, builder of living-room telescopes, winner of quiz programs, and absent-minded as they come, gets the job. Of course Mr. Terry knows nothing of the application, or acceptance, or of the fussy little man with nose glasses who arrives waving a contract. Mrs. Terry clinches the contract-signing, fraudulent or not. She's tired of poverty and leaky roofs.

The youngsters, afraid of being exposed, try to keep Mr. Sanders away from their father and any further knowledge of his incompetence. Bill trots him around the block, and the girls force him into a chair, thrusting the "Ladies' Home Journal" into his unwilling hands. Finally he's whisked to the kitchen by the redoubtable maid, who mistakes him for a poor relation.

In the meantime, Ellen's friend, the coach, becomes involved. It's his uncle another representative from Chicago who arrives to uncover the fraud and stays to read the Terry manuscript (really good, he decides), develop an interest in the Terry telescope, and experience the discomfort of the leaky Terry roof. At one point, there's a living room full of "characters" with umbrellas. Among them is Barney--a red-faced, loud-mouthed garageman--who is fascinated by the telescope.

Mr. Terry himself--a genius at work--flits in and out, munching toast, nervously clattering his typewriter, and of course being completely oblivious to his surroundings. But he doesn't turn out to be such a dud after all. Amateur or not, he finally gets the job. Ellen and the coach patch up their differences, Susan and Bill breathe a little easier, Mrs. Terry finds in her husband a man she can be proud of, and they all live happily ever after--in Chicago, we presume.
